

Global health award

This person or team has demonstrated a longstanding commitment to Global Health. Their activities and initiatives support and promote sustainability in Global Health, including the training and/or employment of colleagues in developing countries. They are committed to improving health provision and health education in developing countries through inclusion and partnership.

Eligible for nomination:

- ✓ Any ENT UK Member