

Innovation in otolaryngology award

This person or team has demonstrated original thought and innovation in pursuing their area of interest within the specialty. Their innovative activities may be in any area of their work (e.g. clinical / surgical / administrative / teaching / research / technology). Their projects are truly original and have been pursued with passion. They deserve recognition for their innovative idea or approach.

Eligible for nomination:

- ✓ Any ENT UK Member