

Rising star award

This award is to celebrate a colleague who shows early signs of brilliance and promise. They've shone in more than one area. Their activities may have been innovative and self-directed, or represent a significant contribution to the specialty. They may be a medical student or trainee. Their approach is modern and inclusive. They have a bright future in ENT.

Eligible for nomination:

- ✓ Core Trainee or Higher Trainee (must be an ENT UK member)
- ✓ Medical Student or Foundation doctor (must be an ENT UK member).
